

Prof.ZHANG Xiping, doctoral supervisor, Chief Scholar and Dean of International Chinese Culture Studies Collaborative Innovation Center, Beijing Foreign Studies University (BFSU). Also honor Director at the International Institute of Chinese Studies BFSU, and chief editor of International Sinology. As vice-chairman of the International Confucian Association, Chairman of Chinese Educational History in the World, Chairman of International Association of Chinese Culture Studies, Board member to Chinese Religious Studies Association and Comparative Studies Association, Prof.ZHANG is grant the Speicial Expat by the State

Council of PRC.

Prof. ZHANG specializes in the field of studies on philosophy, Sino-Western cultural history between 1500-1800, history of Sinology and history of Christianity in China. In recent year, more focus has been given to the early sinology in Europe, and the history of introduction of Chinese cultures to Europe. Now he is undertaking a key research project on “Chinese Catholic Documents at Vatican Library” sponsored by the National Social Science Foundation, and a key project on “Chinese Ancient Cultures in the Europe” sponsored by the Ministry of Education.

Prof.Zhang’s publication includes 11 monographs and more than a hundred academic papers in the core academic journals.