Important Notice
“Authorization to Stay” for Non-Resident Students

(Current Students):

On 1 July, 2015, Public Security Force optimized the “Student Visa”. All non-resident students must complete the renewal procedures with the Immigration Department after every 15th July. The entry permit for the non-resident student will expire if the student changes the study program without the authority to immediately re-apply for a new “Authorization to Stay”.

Students are kindly reminded to double check the “Authorization to Stay” and cooperate with the Immigration Department in the completion of relevant renewal procedures without the completion of the renewal procedures, they may be considered to be overstaying. If the student does not re-enter within the specified period, they will be denied entry to the Macao SAR.

The Immigration Department shall prevail in any contact with Student Affairs.
